

Portugal and the rule of law crisis in europe: next steps? Part II

Workshop organized by ICJP/CIDP

PROJETO TRIAL – TRUST, INDEPENDENCE, IMPARTIALITY, ACCOUNTABILITY OF JUDGES AND ARBITRATORS SAFEGUARDING THE RULE OF LAW UNDER THE EU CHARTER

This project is funded by the European Union's Justice Programme (2014-2020), under G.A no. 853832

13 MAY 2022

LAW SCHOOL, UNIVERSITY OF LISBON – ROOM 12.27 / HYBRID

PROGRAM

Friday, 13th May 2022

- 09.00      Opening session
Tiago Fidalgo de Freitas | CIDP, TRIAL project
- 09.05      Follow-up and preliminary findings
Rita Gião Hanek | CIDP, TRIAL project
- 09.15      Keynote address
[tbc]
- 09.30      Coffee Break
- 09.45      A constructive, future-oriented approach to rule of law challenges: the role of lawyers, prosecutors, judges and policy makers (in Portuguese)
Roundtable:
Pedro Delgado Alves | Member of Parliament
Teresa Violante | Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Researcher
Vânia Costa Ramos | Centre for Criminal Law and Criminal Sciences, Researcher; and Carlos Pinto de Abreu e Associados, Lawyer
Moderador: Tiago Fidalgo de Freitas | CIDP, TRIAL project

11.15 The Judiciary at the center of freedom of expression rule of law challenges (in English)
Roundtable:

Federica Casarosa | European University Institute – TRIIAL lead partner

Mohor Fajdiga | University of Liubjana – TRIIAL project partner

Jaroslav Gwizdak | Institute for Law and Society (INPRIS) – TRIIAL project partner

Moderator: Rita Gião Hanek | CIDP, TRIIAL project

12.45 Lunch